

CONUNDRUM

“As careful attention shows, thought itself is an actual process of movement.” – David Bohm.

The will of the people is a singularity that acts for all.

The singularity is thought, and we are the thinking of thought - one and the same.

We wish to be led and what better than by the sum of who we think we are in every new moment.

Life began when ETERNITY resisted ETERNITY.

Impossible!

And so, the resistance twisted into an illusion; a movement that repeats until the resistance is no more.

The cycling movement generates thinking and as thinking increases the universe emerges under its cause - the one on-high.

Thought is the sum of its own thinking - as one.

The will of the people is a dangerous presence with the advantage of being everywhere at once.

Woe betides those who disagree.

If you can see this conundrum, you may do something about it?

“No one exists outside humanities collective shadow.” - Carl Jung.

You and I are part and parcel.
