

ONE HAND CLAPPING

"The cause of thinking sits on the throne of Zaphon, playing each eternal beat according to the collective will – one and the same - a hand clapping itself."

We have no context for understanding this because the collective will control's all that it is - a conundrum!

From responses of 70,000 hits for some posts to currently 400 ~, I discern that the closer I come to the collective nature of man the more that fall away.

Revealing the truth is as pouring salt on snails.

The sum of thinking is the collective will and there is no outside authority, we are it - inseparable!

Even our greatest thinkers are subject to the collective authority.

All as one, we are the resistance that turned Eternity inside out for the least time and, by gathering this unit of time we have gained a universe in which to become who we think we are as individuals.

Individually, we are God in drag - pretenders!

We are not what we think we are - all together we are Satan.

“But who prays for Satan? Who, in eighteen centuries, has had the common humanity to pray for the one sinner that needed it most?” – Mark Twain.
